Ricardo Carneiro

Computer Science Department

May 1, 2023

CSC 235: Web and Database Development

This attraction/theme park project was great. I got to use some of my older assignments in it and got to implement and learn about audio and gifs as background images. Displaying a image when clicking on something or playing a audio was easier than I thought. I feel like my theme scheme was pretty great. Maybe I could of done a better job on some of my attractions, but overall I think this assignment was pretty straightforward and I got it done.